

Verified Voting: Asking Supreme Court to Appeal Mail Ballot Deadline in Pennsylvania Will Create Confusion for Voters

"Election administration should be a nonpartisan issue"

The following is a statement from Verified Voting in response to Republicans' plan to ask the current eight member U.S. Supreme Court to review a major Pennsylvania state court ruling that extended the deadline for voted mail ballots to be received in the key battleground state. For additional media inquiries, please contact Aurora Matthews, aurora@newheightscommunications.com

September 23, 2020 (Philadelphia)– "Election administration should be a nonpartisan issue. All voters have the right to cast their votes fairly and safely, and know that their votes will count. Attempting to overturn this ruling less than 41 days before Election Day only creates confusion for the Pennsylvania voters who have already begun receiving mail ballots, and the election officials who are racing to adjust their procedures amidst the pandemic."

For additional media inquiries, please contact Aurora Matthews, aurora@newheightscommunications.com

###